Are you going to hand out on streets again tonight?

Yeah ...

My runaway from home will only end ...

When dad finds me.

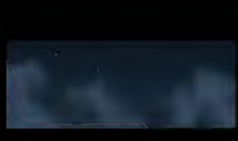
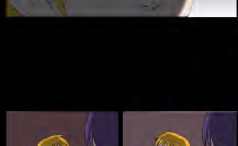
She may say she's busy with work, but that may not be so.
What? What else is there?
When a girl refuses to communicate with her girl friends, there is only one reason. It's a guy.

Don't agitate her! We met at our un last Jur and Whee have known each other since high school. Besides, a quiet girl like Jur tends to get jealous very easily.
I am NOT jealous !!!



You play with men you don't even know. Why not me ?
Listen carefully !
You said you heard about me, so I will make this short. I went with them because I knew I wasn't going to see them again ever.



Yeah, ... we are not middle schoolers anymore... True...

Man, time does fly. I mean it's been more than 10 years since then.

Maybe I am being a little weird ...

But to me I feel like it's only yesterday when you came by and we played.

When was that?

You don't remember? When you let me borrow your camera and I was doing homeworks for you, I failed at a homework's miserably

How can you fail at this ?! Do better or you won't have the camera next week !

Ah ... it's a memory to forget.

Thanks for that, we had to do double amount of homeworks the following week.

We played and studied at my home and went to the eatery behind my house for night snacks.

And I let you ride a swing on a playground nearby.

Then we saw some thugs approaching, so we climbed a wall to escape them...

Then we bought some ice cream with left-over money and went back home to study

That was my last day in Korea

Well, I am not that old to recall memories but those days were my happiest days so far.

And you were in the center of those events.

So, pleaseeeee ! Play with me ! I am not asking much !

O, Okay fine ! If that was what you meant, fine ! I will visit your home !

But hey

Yeah ? What?

You look rather disappointed! Maybe you wanted the other kind of play?

Whoa?! What?! No way !

Looking closer at your face, I do think you are disappointed. I am right, right?

You haven't changed...

Yes, time flew and our bodies grew up and our manners of speeches changed, but we haven't changed

Isn't that funny ?

Hahahahahaha

...at like he said he would ! he defied time and came back.

And if .... "we haven't changed"

If we haven't changed ...

I would still be the same me who liked you.

I thought.
